DR. VON DOLLINGER, ENDORSED BY THE UNIVERSITY OF MUNICH.

MUNICH, July 30, 1871.
Dr. von Dollinger has been elected Rector of the University of Munich. Fifty-four Professors voted in his favor and six against him.

The well-known opponent of Papal infallibility, Dr. von Dollinger, has received numerous expressions of approval of his conduct, but none have been more significant than those which have been sent him from the University of Munich, which also included him in its theological faculty. A very large majority of the professors at that University united in an address to him expressing their unqualified approval of his course.
